

COLLEGE OF ARTS AND SCIENCES
Outstanding Research and Creative Activity
Award 2017-2018
Nominations due on January 26, 2018

The Arts and Sciences Outstanding Research and Creative Activity Awards were established to affirm the important role that significant research and creative accomplishments play in the college.

CRITERIA and ELIGIBILITY

- Tenured faculty and research professors of equivalent rank are eligible.
- Candidates must have significantly advanced knowledge in their field or published significant creative works as UNL faculty members in the last five years.
- Candidates cannot have received this award in the past five years.

NOMINATION MATERIALS

Completed nomination form

Curriculum Vitae

Nomination letter. The nomination letter, which must be from a UNL colleague (including UNL emeritus faculty), should: 1) place the candidate's work in the broader context of his/her field, and 2) describe the impact of the candidate's research and creative contributions on his/her field (nationally and internationally).

Description of significant work. Identify up to five of the candidate's most important publications in the last five years, and briefly describe the significance of each piece of work (2 page maximum). This document may be prepared by either the candidate or the nominator. Submit only this document, not the original publications.
