
UNL COLLEGE OF ARTS AND SCIENCES STUDENT ADVISORY BOARD

The College of Arts and Sciences Student Advisory Board (CASSAB) is a select group of undergraduate leaders that serves as a liaison between students and the leadership of the college. We provide feedback and input about the student experience and advocate for the interests of our peers, develop leadership and professionalism among our members, and regularly support college events and initiatives in collaboration with the Academic and Career Advising Center.

APPLICATION FOR MEMBERSHIP

Applications are due to CASSAB@unl.edu by 11:59PM on September 11, 2020

Please send a one-page resume with your application.

Name:

Phone number:

Email:

Can you attend virtual meetings every Wednesday from 6—7pm?

Yes No

Are you in good standing with UNL (GPA above 2.0)? Yes No

What year are you? Sophomore Junior

What is your major(s)?

What is your minor(s)?

Please answer each of the following questions in 250 words or less:

1. A degree from the College of Arts and Sciences provides a broad liberal education with courses in the humanities, social sciences and natural sciences. Why is such a degree valuable?
2. What do you feel are some of the strengths of the College of Arts and Sciences?
3. What do you feel are some of the weaknesses of the College of Arts and Sciences and what is one way you could improve them?
4. What are you involved in?
5. Considering our current circumstances, what can we do to build community in the College of Arts and Sciences?