

SPANISH

What YOU will learn:

Your Spanish major through the Department of Modern Languages and Literatures will move you to acquire proficiency in the use of the Spanish language as well as enroll in courses on Hispanic language, culture and literature; combining growth, personal challenge, and life experiences. You will be drawn into different cultures around the world, where you will connect with them not just intellectually, but personally. Spanish is more than a set of grammar rules and vocabulary lists. It is a living, breathing organism that is essential to understanding today's global, multicultural environment.

Since language is crucial to the understanding of history and culture, your core courses will impart a grammatical, syntactical, and cultural proficiency enabling you to adapt to an increasingly diverse world. In addition, you can elect to enroll in courses such as Spanish Stylistics, History of the Spanish Language, Spanish for Business and Commerce, Human Rights in Latin American Poetry, Literature in Spanish Canada, and many more!

Career opportunities YOU will have:

As a Spanish major, you will receive a broad general education making you an attractive candidate for a wide range of career opportunities. When combined with interest areas, you will be equipped for pursuing a career in areas such as government service, business, the travel industry, journalism, law, or health care. Employment of recent Nebraska graduates include:

- Asst. Football Coach, Central Connecticut State University
- Bilingual Secretary, Robert A. Ekerson
- Cultural Ambassador TA., Cultural Ambassadors
- Family Strengthening & Outreach Coordinator, Catholic Charities Juan Diego Center
- Fitness Instructor, Select Fitness
- High School English Teacher, Spanish Ministry of Education
- High School Spanish Teacher - LSE, Lincoln Public Schools
- Human Resource Intern, Bosselman Inc

Why NEBRASKA for Spanish?

Take advantage of our newly renovated language lab where you can collaborate in an open setting, sharpen your skills using the iPads provided, or watch streaming global news and programming. You are also encouraged to join like-minded students and practice your conversation skills at Mesa, the Spanish Conversation Table; the Cine Club showcasing films by Latino filmmakers; or the Spanish Club providing you with an opportunity to experience Spanish culture.

Study abroad is crucial to your program, preparing you to become a citizen of the world. What could be better than studying Spanish in Spain? Whether you want to complete your basic language requirement, speed your way to a major or minor, or simply broaden the horizons of your study of Spanish, we have a program that will suit you - travel to cities in Spain or Costa Rica.
